

RESOLUTION NO. 2010-41

A RESOLUTION DEFINING A POLICY TO CHECK CONTRACTORS FOR SUSPENSION OR DEBARMENT

WHEREAS, Local Governments possess the responsibility to follow New Mexico State Procurement procedures when awarding contracts for services other than professional services; and,

WHEREAS, certain contractors have shown the inability or unwillingness to complete contracts for certain local government entities; and,

WHEREAS, these contractors have been added to a Suspension and/or Debarment list, which is kept by both State and Federal governments; and,

WHEREAS, in order to protect the finances and infrastructure of the entity, local governments are required to check these lists prior to awarding contracts;

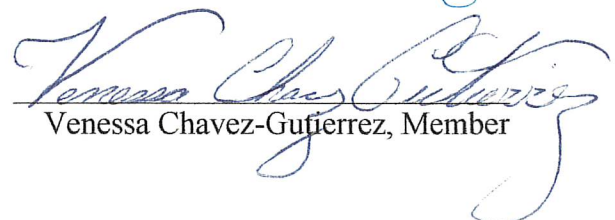

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this County Commission requires the purchasing department to check with State and Federal Purchasing agencies to determine whether a contractor has been added to the Suspension or Debarment list, prior to awarding a contract for services excluding professional services.

DONE, this 13th day of September 2010.
